LONGLIST GALLERY 2025

The Cass Art Prize 2025, presented by The Cass Group, aims to champion contemporary art from across the UK & Republic of Ireland, with a £10,000 cash prize and a free stand at The Other Art Fair in spring 2026 awarded to the overall winner of the competition.

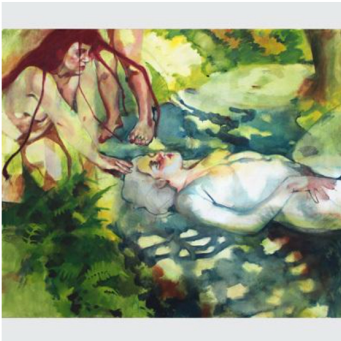

There are additional prizes worth £15,000, including a Students Award, an Art Educators Award and more.

View our gallery of Longlisted artworks below. Longlisted works are exhibited in The Cass Art Prize 2025 Exhibition. Prize winners will be selected from the Shortlisted works and announced at the Private View & Prize-Giving on 23rd October 2025 at Copeland Gallery, London.

Longlisted works will be exhibited at the exhibition and are also eligible for the People's Choice Award.

Makiko Harris is an RCA graduate

Makiko Harris is an MFA graduate and interdisciplinary artist. Winner of The HIGH Prize and finalist for the Ingram Prize 2024, her work has been exhibited internationally and acquired by major collections.

Harris reimagines inherited sewing needles into monumental sculptures. Fragile yet powerful, her works transform domestic tools into symbols of intergenerational connection, creativity, and strength.
